

Invest-E-Neur

Are you ready to kick start your career?
Are you looking for investors to start your journey as an entrepreneur?

Problem Statement

- During the COVID-19 pandemic, several small and medium scale firms are struggling to sustain the striking economic downfall. They are unable to connect to investors interested in their startups due to the lack of communication in the current market.

About us

- We aim at providing a platform for easy interaction of entrepreneurs, companies and investors.
- In these tough times Invest-E-Neur would help the small business and start-ups to connect to larger group of investors and put forward their ideas and objectives.
- Investors on the other hand will choose from an array of different business options.

How it works

- Here companies can put forward the objectives of their business.
- All the business entities would have to register their previous performance status for better analysis of their current working profile.
- In case of start-ups, they will be provided their chance to put forward their ideas and also to directly interact with the investors.

How it works

- Investors on the other hand will choose from an array of different business options.
- The analogy or the performance graph of the respective company would be provided for better selection for investing.
- Also the objectives and ideology of the company will already be provided so not only well established business but also the start-ups would have an opportunity to appeal to the investors.

Elements

- A login button to signing into the website.
- A payment portal to avail the best features at reasonable prices.
- Seperate windows for companies and investors to build their portfolios respectively.
- A contact us page to contact the development team.

Technologies stack

- HTML
- CSS
- BOOTSTRAP
- MERN (MongoDB, Express, javascript, Reactjs, Nodejs)

Why is this different?

- In Invest-E-Neur you don't need to have a strong, wide network for better connection or recommendations. Here you are an individual who's companies worth would only be judged by your determination, goals, achievements and your ideologies for taking the company further.
